

A joint trip was taken with St. John's on Sunday, January 15. The Walleyes played the Cincinnati Cyclones with a score of 4-2 with the Walleyes winning. 15 people went between the two churches. Looks like it was enjoyed by all.

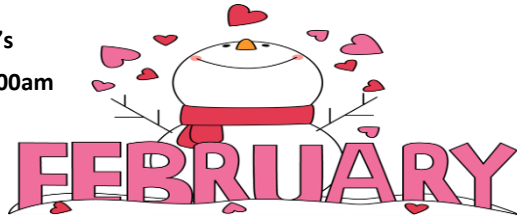

The noisy collection will be donated to the Et Cetera Shop in Bluffton this year. The thrift store whose proceeds fund Mennonite Central Committee's (MCC) development work. Located in the historic former Peerless Glove Shop in Bluffton. MCC Thrift supports Mennonite Central Committee, a worldwide ministry of Anabaptist churches which shares God's love and compassion for all in the name of Christ by responding to basic human needs and working for peace and justice. They are a Not for Profit Thrift Shop supporting the work of Mennonite Central Committee. They sell goods such as clothing and housewares they receive by donation.

(The noisy collection is taken up the first Sunday of the month)
